Ilfracombe is a picturesque Victorian seaside resort known for its rich history. It provides an array of amenities including banks, a library, a post office, schools, and even a cinema. The town features several nearby attractions such as Damien Hirst's famous Verity statue on the Harbour, the award-winning Ilfracombe Aquarium, and the distinct Tunnels Beaches. Year-round events and festivals enliven the area, particularly around the historic harbour and the esteemed Landmark Theatre on the seafront. The region also offers many exceptional beaches from hidden coves to extensive stretches of golden sand ideal for surfing. For a one-of-a-kind beach outing, visit 'The Tunnels' in Ilfracombe with its Blue Flag and Seaside Awards or Hele Bay to the east for quality bathing and rock pool adventures. Additionally, Putsborough, Woolacombe, and Croyde are just a short drive away. North Devon's main hub of Barnstaple is also conveniently about 20 minutes away by car.
