3 Bedroom House – Mid Terrace located in Belfast

Owl & Ash are delighted to present this beautifully renovated three-story mid-terrace townhouse, perfectly situated on Belfast's sought-after Lichfield Avenue.

This charming home has been thoughtfully refurbished to an exceptional standard, blending contemporary style with classic character. Arranged over three floors, the property offers bright and generously proportioned accommodation throughout, including three well-sized bedrooms and two modern bathrooms – an ideal choice for families or professionals seeking comfort, space, and convenience.

Originally built in the 1950s, the townhouse has been meticulously updated to meet modern living standards while retaining its original warmth and appeal. Every detail has been carefully considered to create a fresh, inviting, and light-filled home that feels both stylish and welcoming.

Enjoying a superb location, the property provides easy access to Belfast city centre and a range of local amenities. Whether commuting, shopping, or dining out, everything you need is within easy reach.
