3 Bedroom House located in Belfast

Owl & Ash Lettings are delighted to present 19 Leven Park to the Belfast rental market. This superb three-bedroom home offers a rare opportunity to rent a recently renovated property finished to an exceptional standard in a highly sought-after area where quality rentals are seldom available. Ideal for professionals, couples and families alike, the property combines modern living with excellent convenience.

Internally, the home has been extensively refurbished throughout and is presented in immaculate condition. Features include brand new carpets, new internal doors, contemporary flooring, a stylish fitted kitchen with integrated electric oven, hob and extractor fan, and a beautifully finished new bathroom suite. An excellent utility area to the rear provides valuable additional storage and practicality rarely found in similar rental properties.

The rear garden also benefits from new fencing for added security, and backs onto convenient walkways and generous surrounding green space, creating a pleasant setting particularly suited to families with young children, with the front of the property boasting handy communal residential parking.
