

52 High Street Ballyhalbert, Newtownards, BT22 1BL

"Charming terraced cottage in need of complete renovation and modernisation."

This is a lovely historic cottage with lounge, including a cast iron stove (back boiler) & exposed stone walling. A ground floor rear extension provides a galley style kitchen, a rear hallway and a ground floor bathroom. Open tread stairs in the lounge lead to single first floor bedroom. To the rear is a generous garden with countryside views beyond and the beach is just a short walk from your front door.

This property has loads of potential. The rear extension is currently in need of a new felt roof but the owner has held off on doing this as a new buyer may wish to extend the first floor over this area to add an additional bedroom and/or bathroom (subject to relevant consents). With two bedrooms and modernised to a high standard similar properties have achieved in excess of £120,000 recently.
