Situation

Located in the thriving market town of Holsworthy, residents benefit from a weekly Pannier Market, an excellent selection of both national and independent local shops, and a convenient Waitrose & Partners supermarket. The town offers a wide range of amenities, including a heated swimming pool, sports hall, bowling green, cricket club, and an 18-hole golf course.

The popular coastal town of Bude on the North Cornish coast is approximately 9 miles away. The market towns of Okehampton and Bideford, together with Dartmoor National Park, are around 20 miles distant, while Barnstaple, the regional centre of North Devon, lies approximately 30 miles away. Launceston, Cornwall's historic former county town, is about 14 miles from Holsworthy.

Holsworthy sits at the heart of the renowned Ruby Country, an area named after the famous local Red Ruby Devon cattle and celebrated for its unspoilt countryside and rural heritage.

Directions

From the centre of Holsworthy, proceed along Fore Street in the direction of Launceston and turn right into Bodmin Street. Take the next right-hand turning into Croft Road and continue for approximately 200 yards before turning right, signposted The Mowhay. Number 3 will be found a short distance along on the left-hand side, clearly identified by a Bond Oxborough Phillips for Sale board.
