Fabulous space all around this deceptive site.

The front and side garden is laid in lawn and bordered with plants trees and shrubs.

There is a long driveway leading to the garage which also curves to the front of the property providing parking for numerous vehicles and an EV charge point.

To the rear, a fully enclosed outdoor living area has been created. Landscaped with paved and stoned areas for low maintenance this is a perfect spot to relax or entertain.

Houses in this area can often have the space to extend or some come to market ready for significant modernisation and upheaval. The fact that this one has such an extension already added, at a time of incredibly high building costs, means this should appeal to many busy growing families wishing to stay or re locate to Ballygally.
