Dating back to the early 1900s, this impressive and characterful home offers a fantastic amount of space both inside and out, occupying a generous 1.47-acre plot in the heart of the village. Full of charm and original character, the property has been thoughtfully adapted over the years to create a comfortable, versatile and welcoming family home.

The house is approached via a private, secluded driveway, providing a wonderful sense of privacy and tranquility from the moment you arrive. Tucked away from the road, yet conveniently positioned within the village, the property enjoys an enviable combination of peace, space and accessibility.

Inside, the accommodation offers a lovely sense of scale, with large bedrooms that are particularly well suited to modern family living. Several of the bedrooms benefit from their own en-suite bathrooms, providing excellent privacy and convenience for family members and guests alike. The generous proportions also make the property ideal for those who require flexible accommodation for working from home, hobbies or visiting family.

The main living accommodation is spacious and welcoming, with a good selection of reception rooms that can be adapted to suit individual needs. Traditional features throughout give the home a warmth and character that is often missing from more modern properties, while the slate flooring is a particularly attractive feature, complementing the property's period appeal and offering a practical finish for everyday family life.

A conservatory provides an additional reception space and creates a lovely connection between the house and gardens. Flooded with natural light, it offers an ideal setting for enjoying breakfast, relaxing with a book or entertaining friends and family while taking in views across the surrounding grounds.

The loft conversion adds another valuable dimension, providing a versatile area that could be used as an additional bedroom, home office, hobby room, games room or simply a peaceful retreat away from the main living spaces.

Outside, the property truly comes into its own. The 1.47 acres of gardens and grounds provide an exceptional amount of space for a village property, with ample room for children to play, outdoor entertaining, gardening or simply enjoying the privacy and freedom of such a substantial plot. The secluded setting and generous grounds create a rare opportunity to enjoy a rural feel while being right in the heart of the village.

Changing Lifestyles

Winkleigh is a charming village located in North Devon, rich in history and nestled amidst picturesque countryside. Dating back to Saxon times, the village has retained much of its rural charm with a lovely village square, surrounded by traditional white cottages. With a population of around 1,400, Winkleigh maintains a close-knit community atmosphere, offering a range of local amenities including a village shop, a pub, and a primary school. The surrounding countryside offers plenty of opportunities for outdoor activities, such as hiking and cycling, with scenic routes that provide stunning views of the Devon landscape.

The village is also well-connected, with easy access to nearby towns like Barnstaple and Bideford, making it ideal for those seeking a peaceful, rural lifestyle without sacrificing convenience. In addition, Winkleigh hosts various cultural events, including the traditional "Burning the Ashen Faggot," reflecting the village's long-standing heritage. For those looking for a blend of history, community, and natural beauty, Winkleigh is an ideal place to call home.
