Location

This excellent holding is ideally situated in a highly sought after agricultural district between Aughnacloy and Benburb.

Description

This excellent holding, which benefits from frontage to Rehaghy Road, comprises C. 27.2 acres in total. C.7.9 acres of the holding is laid in productive grassland. The fields are of gently sloping topography and are suitable for both grazing and cutting purposes.

The remainder of the holding (C.19.33 acres) comprises woodland which is home to Rehaghy Wood. This woodland boasts a large collection of mature Irish oak trees over 100 years old, amongst various other species. The woodland is currently designated as an ASSI site; however, it may still have significant investment appeal.
