

GERARD MCCLINTON

ESTATE AGENT

11 Saintsbury Avenue, Lisburn, BT27 5QQ

Offers in the region of £235,000

An attractive three-bedroom detached bungalow enjoying a quiet cul-de-sac setting, with spacious single-level living, manageable gardens and an exceptionally convenient Lisburn location.

11 Saintsbury Avenue is a well-presented detached bungalow that should hold particular appeal for those considering a move to something more manageable, while still retaining plenty of space, privacy and versatility.

The accommodation is arranged entirely on one level and includes three bedrooms, offering flexibility for visiting family, a home office or hobby room. The bright and spacious lounge features a large bow window and solid marble fireplace, while the fitted kitchen opens through to a dining area and bright sun room overlooking the rear garden.

- Attractive three-bedroom detached bungalow in a quiet cul-de-sac
- Spacious and versatile accommodation arranged entirely on one level setting
- Particularly well suited to those downsizing or seeking to future-proof their next move
- Bright and spacious lounge with feature fireplace and large bay window
- Fitted kitchen opening through to dining area and bright sunroom
- Three well-proportioned bedrooms offering excellent flexibility
- Bathroom with freestanding roll-top bath and separate shower enclosure
- Attached garage and attractive, manageable gardens with mature planting

