Waldon Valley Lodges occupies a peaceful rural setting on the site of a former working quarry, conveniently situated near the popular village of Bradworthy, which offers a range of everyday amenities including a traditional village pub. The location provides an excellent base from which to explore the beautiful North Devon and North Cornwall countryside and coastline, with the popular coastal resort of Bude approximately 11 miles away, offering sandy beaches, coastal walks, shops and restaurants. The renowned beaches of Sandymouth and Widemouth Bay are approximately 9 and 14 miles respectively, whilst the picturesque fishing village of Clovelly and the historic village of Tintagel are also within easy reach. The nearby Tamar Lakes Nature Reserve, approximately 4.5 miles distant, offers an excellent range of outdoor pursuits including fishing, sailing, kayaking and scenic walking trails, together with an abundance of wildlife.

Outside - Extending in total to approximately 9.9 acres, the grounds are an outstanding feature of this unique property, comprising an attractive mixture of established woodland, open grassland, riverside surroundings and a picturesque private fishing lake. Formerly a quarry, the site has been extensively landscaped and transformed over recent years, creating a wonderfully sheltered and private setting. The three holiday lodges are positioned within attractive clearings around the lake, each benefiting from its own timber veranda providing an ideal space for outdoor dining, relaxation and enjoying the peaceful surroundings. The lake forms a central feature of the development, surrounded by natural planting, established trees and areas of lawn, creating an attractive environment for guests to enjoy throughout their stay. An extensive network of thoughtfully created pathways winds through the woodland and alongside the river, allowing visitors to explore the grounds and appreciate the natural beauty of the site. The woodland provides a wonderful habitat for a variety of wildlife and offers an ever-changing landscape throughout the seasons. The combination of lakeside accommodation, established woodland and riverside walks provides a particularly appealing setting for those seeking to operate a nature-based holiday retreat, with considerable scope to further enhance the outdoor guest experience.

Agents Note - The property is currently operated as a holiday letting business, with no permanent residential dwelling on site. Planning permission has been granted for two additional units. Prospective purchasers are advised to satisfy themselves through the relevant local planning authority regarding the existing planning permissions, occupancy restrictions, permitted use and potential for any further development.

Anti-Money Laundering - Before any sale is formally agreed, we have a legal obligation under the Money Laundering regulations and Terrorist Financing Act 2017 to obtain proof of your identity and of your address, take copies and retain on file for five years and will only be used for this purpose. We carry out this through a secure platform to protect your data. Each purchaser will be required to pay £20 upon an offer verbally being agreed to carry out these checks prior to the property being advertised as sale agreed.

Services - Mains Electric and Water and Private Drainage.
