THE PROPERTY

Situated within the sought-after Redwoods development in Dunmurry, Apartment 14 on the third floor of The Luna Building offers modern, low-maintenance living in a highly convenient and well-established residential location.

The apartment enjoys an elevated third-floor position, providing bright and comfortable accommodation within this popular development. The property offers contemporary open-plan living, two well-proportioned bedrooms and a private balcony. Further benefits include lift access, off-street parking and well-maintained communal areas.

The development is particularly well positioned for commuters, with Dunmurry Train Station located within close proximity, offering regular rail services to Belfast and Lisburn. Excellent bus connections and convenient access to the M1 motorway further enhance the property's accessibility, with Belfast City Centre and Lisburn both within easy reach.

Dunmurry offers a wide range of local amenities, including shops, supermarkets, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities. The nearby Sir Thomas and Lady Dixon Park also provides an attractive setting for walking and outdoor recreation.

Combining modern accommodation, convenient transport links and the benefit of off-street parking, Apartment 14, The Luna Building presents an excellent opportunity for professionals, couples or those seeking comfortable apartment living within easy reach of Belfast and Lisburn.
