Hadlow Hills

The Beacon on the Coast

Situated on Bangor's doorstep along the Ards Peninsula the quaint harbour town of Donaghadee is steeped in a long seafaring history and still maintains a special romance with the sea today.

Renowned for its impressive lighthouse and colourful harbour, Donaghadee is home to a host of exciting things to see and do. Whether it's kicking back and relaxing at the exceptional Bull & Claw restaurant, spending an afternoon on the calm waters of the Irish Sea with Donaghadee's Sailing Club or simply admiring the picturesque beauty of this charming town, Donaghadee has something to offer for everyone.

What's more, with a wealth of leading primary and secondary schools located in Donaghadee, and the neighbouring towns of Bangor and Newtownards, it goes without saying that this location is perfect for growing families.

Thanks to the ideal positioning of Hadlow Hills, residents can benefit from the abundance of nearby amenities. From Donaghadee's best cafes, pubs and restaurants, to convenience stores, local boutiques, and excellent leisure centres, homeowners certainly don't have far to travel to access these facilities.

The Perfect Opportunity

Hadlow Hills is a unique collection of detached and semi-detached family homes on the edge of the bustling seaside town of Donaghadee. These architecturally designed homes are characterised by spacious, modern interiors which have been finished to the highest standard for easy maintenance and practical living.

Yet, the practicality of these homes stretches far beyond their interior. The development's convenient location to Bangor and Newtownards means that you can enjoy all the benefits of small town living, whilst taking advantage of the excellent local amenities a short drive away.

Hadlow Hills really is The Perfect Opportunity for first-time buyers and young families. A space, thoughtfully designed and crafted with affordable and sustainable homes, in one of the most exciting developments on this peaceful slice of the Ards Peninsula.
