SKY MEETS STRANGFORD, CALM MEETS EVERYDAY, LOCAL MEETS COMMUNITY.

Enler Village is more than a new address—it's a thoughtful, well-placed part of a town with deep roots and plenty of forward motion.

This carefully balanced collection of apartments, detached, semi-detached and townhouse homes is just minutes from Comber's cafés, schools and the Greenway. Whether it's a quick bike into Belfast, a quiet loop around Strangford Lough, or a stroll to the market for Comber Earlies, life here opens up on your terms.

Inside, every home is finished with everyday ease in mind. Expect integrated appliances, Ember smart heating, USB points in all bedrooms and ultrafast broadband readiness. Thoughtful materials, calming tones and flexible layouts come as standard—so things feel right from the start.

Comber itself has always had a sense of direction. It gave us Thomas Andrews, designer of the Titanic. It produced whiskey, linen and a Prime Minister. And it once hosted the famous TT motorcycle races. Today, it's still proud, still personal, and still quietly full of energy.

With open green space, tree-lined streets and a strong community feel, Enler Village gives you more than a home. It gives you the kind of place that works—and the kind of place that lasts.

For bright futures

Enler Village is perfectly positioned for families looking to the future, with respected nurseries, primaries and post-primary options all close at hand. From first steps to bright ambitions, education here begins with confidence and grows with care.
