Perfectly suited to a wide variety of buyers, including young professionals hoping to take their first step onto the property ladder and growing families seeking comfort and convenience, South Lake Park truly offers something for everyone.

Ideally located just a short drive away from both Lurgan and Portadown, homeowners will find a wealth of exciting things to see and do right on their doorstep. With excellent road links stretching from South Lake Park to Lurgan, Portadown and across the entire Craigavon area, homeowners can benefit from convenience and easy accessibility.

In addition, the Craigavon address offers an array of employment opportunities for those pursuing a change of career, with Craigavon Area Hospital, Rushmere Shopping Centre, and a multitude of cafés, pubs, and restaurants all located just a stone's throw away.

What's more, thanks to the newly established South Lakes Leisure Centre, homeowners can enjoy a range of superb facilities just minutes from their home. From an Olympic-sized swimming pool and outstanding exercise equipment, to a serene sauna, steam room, and tranquil spa treatments, the South Lakes Leisure Centre provides a hub of activity to those living nearby.

For those wishing to settle down in an exceptional home in an unparalleled location, South Lake Park certainly affords this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Boasting easy access to a range of beautiful outdoor spaces, including Lurgan Park, Craigavon Balancing Lakes, and guaranteeing a hassle-free journey in order to reach nearby convenience stores, renowned high-street shops, excellent eateries, and leading recreational and leisure facilities, South Lake Park is truly in a league of its own. Showcasing a unique collection of spacious detached and semi-detached homes, each carefully designed and beautifully crafted to the highest of standards, prospective residents of South Lake Park are promised nothing less than the very best of modern living.
