Overview

This charming property offers a dynamic setup with a 3 Bedroom semi-detached house and a detached 1 Bedroom barn, presenting an excellent opportunity for dual living or additional income potential. With no onward chain, it is situated in a fantastic location on the edge of Exmoor, benefiting from a great local pub, post office facilities and breathtaking views through the valley. The surrounding countryside and nearby coastal walks make this an idyllic setting for those who love the outdoors.

The main house features a welcoming Lounge with a feature wood burner set within a stone surround, complete with a historic bread oven. The space enjoys ample storage and picturesque views of the garden and valley. The Kitchen / Diner is light and spacious, showcasing characterful exposed beams, Velux roof lights, a granite worktop with an inset Belfast sink, an Esse solid fuel stove and an electric hob with ovens. There is generous room for a dining table, creating a perfect space for family meals. The Utility Room, formerly a dairy parlour, provides additional storage, a sink and access to the garden. A modern downstairs Shower Room offers a 3-piece suite with a walk-in shower, metro tile surround, electric shower with a direct feed supply, and underfloor heating.

Upstairs, the First Floor boasts a large Main Bedroom with stunning front-facing views, extensive storage, a double wardrobe and a charming inglenook fireplace. The third Bedroom is well-proportioned with dual aspect windows, allowing for abundant natural light and scenic views. The Second Floor presents a spacious and airy double room with a versatile dressing room, study, or office space, as well as additional storage and more breathtaking views.

The exterior of the property includes an easy to maintain large and sunny garden with wild bedding borders, mature shrubs and trees, and uninterrupted views of the valley. There is also a garden shed and driveway parking for 2-3 vehicles, with potential for additional parking space.

The detached 1 Bedroom barn, converted in 2013, is a superb addition to the property. The open-plan Ground Floor features a charming flagstone floor, a feature fireplace, fitted kitchen units with a Belfast sink and a 2-ring electric hob, and a useful Porch / storage area. A modern 3-piece Shower Room includes a shower enclosure, slate flooring and an understairs water heater. The First Floor is bright and spacious, offering a dual aspect layout with Velux windows and flexible space for both a bed and a snug seating area.

Outside, the barn benefits from its own private parking for 2 vehicles and a low-maintenance sunny garden with a wild meadow lawn, a small pond, raised wall gardens, a log store, a garden shed and stunning valley views.

This unique property is brimming with character, space and potential, making it a truly special opportunity in a sought after location.
