Offers over £530,000

I am thrilled to introduce this stunning new build, a custom-designed 4-bedroom detached home that spans 2,690 sq ft. Nestled in the picturesque Ballycolin Road area, this luxurious residence is perched on an elevated site, offering breathtaking views of Belfast and the Mourne Mountains. The home will be completed to a high standard and will be ready for immediate occupancy.

Leading up to the property you will drive up a new tarmac driveway with a raised area that will be finished in contrasting striking white and will have contemporary feature lighting and planters. This entrance will be incredible.

A fitting entrance to this impressive property was also a must for the developer. He wanted the entrance to Wow the new owners so he has created an entrance hall that features an impressive double height, vaulted ceiling with large feature window, showcasing the spectacular views.
