Tucked away off the Upper Cregagh Road and offering generous accommodation, 'Bapaume Avenue', or one of the ex servicemen's homes' as they are often referred to, were built and named after the battles of WWI. They are a popular house type given the well proportioned accommodation, with 3 first floor bedrooms, a spacious lounge and modern fitted kitchen with an extended ground floor shower room completing the accommodation. Outside there large driveway with ample off street parking, that leads to the large detached garage. To the rear there is a good size low maintenance garden.
