SITUATION/DESCRIPTION

- The subject property is currently fitted out as a two-storey hot food unit, making it ideally suited for a range of food and beverage operators seeking a prominent location in a high-footfall area. The layout offers flexibility for both takeaway and dine-in use, with potential to further enhance the internal configuration to suit specific operational needs.
- Its proximity to Queen's University, Belfast City Hospital, and the busy Lisburn Road ensures a consistent and diverse customer base including students, healthcare workers, and commuters. This presents a strong opportunity for an occupier or investor to benefit from sustained demand in one of Belfast's most vibrant commercial and residential catchments.
- Belfast is the capital City of Northern Ireland and the main administrative, commercial and judicial centre for the Province. As the second largest City in Ireland by population and 60% of the Northern Ireland population lives within a 40 minute drive time of the City (approximately 1 million people out of a total population of 1.81 million according to the 2011 Census).
- Belfast has good communication links with the west and south of the Province via the M1 Motorway network and with the north and east of the Province via the M2 Motorway. The City has a rail network, 2 airports, sea ports along with city and provincial bus services.
