Set just a few steps from the thriving heart of Bradworthy village, Forge View is a deceptively spacious end-of-terrace cottage with charming period features, a generous garden and a wealth of untapped potential.

Positioned at the end of a quiet walkway shared with only three neighbouring homes, this characterful cottage is a rare find – offering privacy, scope for improvement and a fantastic garden, all within a few moments' walk of local amenities.

The accommodation includes a Front Porch opening to a welcoming Dining Room with a fireplace, a galley-style Kitchen and a lovely, dual-aspect Sitting Room with another feature fireplace and views over the garden. From the front lobby, a door opens into a small enclosed courtyard garden and stairs rise to the first floor.

Upstairs, there are 2 well-proportioned double Bedrooms and a spacious Bathroom, all of which would benefit from cosmetic improvement but are well-sized and full of light.

To the side, the property enjoys a large private garden with mature shrubs, trees and a greenhouse – an ideal spot for keen gardeners or those seeking a tranquil outdoor space.

The property also benefits from oil fired radiator central heating, double glazing and a wonderful sense of privacy thanks to its tucked away setting.

Forge View is ideal for buyers looking to create their own rural retreat, downsize into the village, or even as a holiday let or second home. Parking is available in the village square on a first-come, first-served basis.
