Bideford is a peaceful olde worlde market town on the River Torridge. The main district is on the west bank and its narrow streets filled with white painted houses sprawl from the working quay, up the slopes to the outer suburbs. A former historic port town, Bideford is a great place to explore, whether it's a trip to the shops or a restaurant outing there's something for everyone. The Pannier Market is a brilliant example of the town's originality, with its terrace of artists' workshops and independent shops. The town also champions sports at a grassroots level with both the local rugby and football teams having healthy followings. There are no end of ways to join in the community spirit of this wonderful white town on the hill.

Tucked just a short stroll from the heart of Bideford Town Centre, this spacious 2 Bedroom end-of-terrace house offers a rare opportunity to create a charming home with the added benefit of a private parking space directly in front – a true premium in this area.

In need of various works of improvement, the property presents as a blank canvas, inviting you to add your own flair throughout.

The welcoming Entrance Hall leads into a large open-plan Living / Dining Room, bathed in natural light from a generous bay window and featuring exposed floorboards, understairs storage and a shelved walk-in cupboard. The Kitchen is well-proportioned with ample space for appliances and opens into a small enclosed courtyard garden – ideal for relaxing outdoors, with side access onto Honestone Street. A ground floor WC offers added practicality with room for utilities.

Upstairs, the Principal Bedroom is impressively sized with elevated views over the town, while the second Bedroom also offers good proportions. A bright 4-piece Bathroom includes a bath, large corner shower, WC and wash hand basin, with a spacious loft above offering conversion potential, subject to planning.

With attractive marland brick character, generous internal proportions and so much potential, this property is well worth viewing for those looking to settle close to the amenities of central Bideford.
