A Rare Opportunity to Acquire a Beautifully Renovated Period Residence of Exceptional Quality

Nestled in the heart of the charming hamlet of Derril, this outstanding period property has been meticulously restored to an exceptional standard by a highly regarded local builder. Combining timeless character with refined modern living, this elegant home is ideally located just a short distance from the bustling market town of Holsworthy and within easy reach of the renowned coastal resort of Bude.

Upon entry, the sense of space and craftsmanship is immediately apparent. A stunning open-plan living area welcomes you, with full-height glazing to the rear flooding the space with natural light and offering lovely views of the landscaped gardens. French doors lead seamlessly outside, while a striking feature staircase rises through the heart of the room. Original character features, including a substantial stone inglenook fireplace housing a wood-burning stove and a traditional clome oven, sit harmoniously alongside high-quality contemporary finishes.

The kitchen has been thoughtfully designed to complement the period charm of the home, with solid wood worktops, an inset Belfast sink, integrated range of Bosch appliances include an oven with hob and extractor, and space for under-counter appliances. A breakfast bar adds further versatility, while the generous proportions provide ample room for both a dining room table and chairs and a living suite.

To the front of the property, a cosy snug offers a tranquil retreat, complete with a second wood-burning stove – perfect for quiet evenings. The ground floor is further enhanced by a stylish shower room and a practical utility room.

Upstairs, the impressive principal bedroom boasts its own dressing room and a beautifully appointed ensuite, while two further spacious double bedrooms, a comfortable single room, and a luxurious family bathroom provide well-balanced accommodation for families or guests.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a thoughtfully landscaped and fully enclosed rear garden, laid mainly to lawn with a paved terrace and well-planned planting. An insulated garden office/studio at the far end offers ideal space for remote working or hobby pursuits.

Sustainable features include solar PV panels and underfloor heating, reflecting the quality and efficiency of the renovation throughout. Offered with no onward chain, this exceptional home must be viewed to fully appreciate the calibre of accommodation on offer.
