Overview

A beautifully renovated period cottage nestled in a tranquil hamlet, ideally positioned between the sought-after village of Shebbear and the Historic Market Town of Holsworthy.

This exceptional home has been sympathetically extended and fully refurbished by the current owners, seamlessly blending character features with high-quality modern finishes.

Upon entering through a charming stable door, you are welcomed into a characterful dining room, brimming with original features including exposed ceiling beams and a striking inglenook fireplace housing an electric AGA with an original clome oven and timber mantle. The space comfortably accommodates a large dining table and flows effortlessly into the recently installed, high-specification kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with sleek Corian worktops, an inset porcelain sink, integrated oven, four-ring ceramic hob with extractor, and a walk-in pantry. A second stable door opens directly onto the rear garden.

To the rear of the property is a cosy snug, ideal for relaxation, along with a convenient downstairs WC. The home benefits from two staircases: a spiral staircase leads to an impressive first-floor living room, featuring vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, a wood-burning stove set within a handsome fireplace, and glazed double doors opening onto the rear gardens. This space also provides access to a bright, dual-aspect double bedroom.

The main staircase rises to a further double bedroom, a single bedroom, and a beautifully appointed family bathroom.

Outside, the south-facing gardens extend to approximately 0.13 acres and are a true delight—principally laid to lawn with thoughtfully curated planting that provides a high degree of privacy. At the top of the garden lies a productive vegetable patch. A short stroll from the cottage leads to a dedicated parking area for two vehicles.

A truly unique and beautifully presented home that must be viewed to be fully appreciated.
