

46 St. Andrews Drive Ballyhalbert, Newtownards, BT22 1TL

Another exceptional Boland Reilly built home, and probably the biggest in the development at approx. 1,800 sq.ft. The property is beautifully presented throughout and is walk in ready for the lucky future owner.

Accommodation is versatile and flexible but is currently utilised as 4 spacious first floor bedrooms, including a master with en-suite shower room, and an open landing with reading area (potential to add an additional bedroom here if required) and family bathroom. The ground floor centres around a luxury kitchen/diner with central island & separate utility room, a spacious lounge, a 5th bedroom (or formal dining room) and a ground floor WC. Additionally the property benefits from an integral garage and brick paved parking to the front.

The rear garden is "south facing", that most desirable of features, and has been tastefully landscaped to make the most of the sun, a lovely space for family or entertaining. This home is not just a place to live; it is a sanctuary where you can create lasting memories. If you are seeking a spacious and well-appointed family home in a lovely location, and just a short distance from the beach, then this property is certainly worth considering and should be viewed to be fully appreciated.
