Overview

Tucked away on the outskirts of the highly sought after village of Hartland, within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Tittlemouse enjoys a wonderfully peaceful countryside setting with sea views available close by. Forming part of a charming complex of similar stone-fronted properties, the Grade II listed bungalow is approached via a gravelled pedestrian pathway providing a delightful sense of arrival. Residents benefit from a large gravelled parking area, and Tittlemouse has 2 allocated spaces along with a useful outside shed – ideal for storing surfboards, bikes or garden tools.

The development offers an attractive communal lawned green to the side, a recreational space for all residents to enjoy, while Tittlemouse itself is enclosed by a high picket fence affording an excellent degree of privacy. The garden to the front has been thoughtfully designed for low-maintenance with stone chippings creating a lovely space to relax which is complemented by a small raised lawn. A decked area to the side of the property provides a further space to sit and soak up the peaceful surroundings and birdsong. The garden also has a handy storage cupboard for recycling and outdoor items whilst to the rear of the property there is further communal garden space.

Stepping inside, the front door opens directly into a well-presented Kitchen, fitted with cream shaker-style units that perfectly complement the character of the property. Integrated appliances include a double oven and induction hob with extractor over, with further space for a fridge and dishwasher. This leads through to a superbly proportioned Living / Dining Room, full of character with exposed wooden ceiling beams and French doors opening out to the decking, creating a seamless link between indoor and outdoor living.

The property offers 2 generously sized double Bedrooms and a stylish, contemporary Bathroom fitted with a freestanding bath with shower over, pedestal wash basin and WC, all finished with modern downlighting. A separate Utility Room adds to the practicality, providing additional work surface, a sink and space for a washing machine, tumble dryer and freezer.

Tittlemouse is a truly unique home that balances charm, comfort and convenience in an idyllic location. Whether you are seeking a tranquil permanent residence, an investment opportunity or a delightful holiday retreat, this property is sure to impress. We would highly recommend an early viewing to fully appreciate everything it has to offer. This property is available for sale with no onward chain.

Area Information

Hartland is a pleasant village described as 'the most welcoming community' in North Devon. It really is a lovely place to live and visit.

The village itself has quite a few useful shops, pubs and churches, an excellent doctors surgery and a primary school too. The highlights of the larger area of Hartland includes the dramatic Hartland Quay with its craggy black rocks and friendly hotel. The South West Coast path takes in Hartland Point and Speke's Mill Mouth. There's the lighthouse, Hartland Abbey and an iconic radar station in the area too, so it's quite a spot to explore. It's rural Devon at its very best.

Hartland is within short driving distance of the Atlantic Highway (A39) that is the main feeder route across the region leading to Wadebridge in Cornwall to the south-west and to the M5 by Tiverton in the east. A bus service provides access to North Devon's 'capital', Barnstaple. Bus users can also reach Westward Ho!, Bideford, Braunton, Appledore, Croyde and Ilfracombe.
