Chilsworthy is a small village less than 2 miles from the bustling market town of Holsworthy with its weekly Pannier Market, good range of national and local shops together with a Waitrose supermarket. There are a whole range of amenities within the town including a heated swimming pool, sports hall, bowling green, cricket club, 18 hole golf course etc. Bude on the North Cornish coast is some 10 miles. Okehampton, Dartmoor National Park and the market town of Bideford are some 22 & 15 miles distant respectively, whilst Barnstaple, the Regional North Devon Centre is some 27 miles. Launceston, Cornwall's ancient capital, is some 15 miles distant. Holsworthy is in the heart of Ruby Country, named after the famous local Red Ruby cattle.

Steeped in history and full of period charm, this delightful home offers a warm and welcoming atmosphere from the moment you step inside. The cosy living room immediately impresses with exposed ceiling beams and a stunning inglenook fireplace set within original stonework – the perfect space to relax and unwind.

Continuing through the ground floor, you'll find a spacious dining room which also provides access to the first floor. The well-appointed kitchen features a range of matching wall and base units with worktops over, as well as convenient access to the side of the property. Completing the downstairs accommodation is a family bathroom, comprising a low-level WC, pedestal wash basin, and a panelled bath with shower over.

Upstairs, the property offers two generously sized bedrooms, both flooded with natural light thanks to front-facing windows that frame peaceful village views.

Externally, the cottage enjoys a generous garden – a wonderful outdoor space to enjoy al fresco dining or gardening. A handy outbuilding, located in the corner of the plot, offers ideal storage for tools and outdoor equipment.

Whether you're looking for a tranquil village retreat, a characterful full-time home, or a charming holiday let opportunity, this beautiful cottage in Chilsworthy is not to be missed.
