We are delighted to present Gwel Teg, a beautifully crafted, contemporary three-bedroom detached residence, newly constructed and perfectly positioned to enjoy truly stunning panoramic views over rolling countryside and towards the charming village church at St Issey.

From the moment you arrive, it's clear that this home has been thoughtfully designed and finished to a high standard. The property combines the warmth and efficiency of timber frame construction with a stylish exterior finish of rendered blockwork and a distinctive New England-style weatherboard cladding at first floor level, giving it a crisp, coastal feel.

Step inside, and you're welcomed into a bright and spacious entrance hall, where natural light pours in and a sense of calm, contemporary design sets the tone. Underfloor heating runs throughout the ground floor, ensuring warmth and comfort underfoot.

At the heart of the home is a stunning open-plan living, kitchen, and dining area – a wonderfully sociable space, ideal for both relaxed family life and entertaining. The kitchen is sleek and modern, fitted with a range of integrated appliances and a central island unit complete with a built-in wine cooler, perfect for gatherings with friends and family. The living space flows seamlessly toward the rear of the home, where wide bi-folding doors open directly onto a paved patio and lawned garden, framing uninterrupted countryside views that are simply breathtaking.

Also on the ground floor, you'll find a convenient cloakroom and additional storage, tucked neatly away to maintain the home's clean and spacious feel.

Upstairs, the accommodation continues to impress. The main bedroom is a true retreat, complete with its own en-suite shower room and patio doors opening onto a private, decked balcony with glazed balustrade – the perfect place to enjoy morning coffee while taking in the wide-reaching views. Two further double bedrooms, both generously sized and full of natural light, share a contemporary family bathroom finished with quality fittings.

Outside, the landscaped garden has been designed to complement the home's setting. With two paved patio areas and a lawned garden, there's plenty of space to relax, entertain, or simply enjoy the peaceful surroundings. Off-road parking is also available.

Gwel Teg offers a rare blend of quality, comfort, and location – an ideal full-time residence or luxurious holiday home within easy reach of North Cornwall's stunning coastline and nearby towns such as Padstow and Wadebridge.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the finish, views, and lifestyle this exceptional property offers.

Changing Lifestyles

Little Petherick is a charming and picturesque village nestled in the heart of North Cornwall, just a short drive from the bustling harbour town of Padstow and the stunning beaches of the Camel Estuary. Surrounded by rolling countryside, woodland walks, and scenic waterways, the village offers a peaceful rural setting while remaining highly accessible to the coast and nearby amenities.

The village is centred around its historic parish church, St. Petroc Minor, and is known for its characterful cottages and timeless Cornish charm. Little Petherick sits just off the A389, providing excellent road links to Wadebridge, Padstow, and beyond. The Camel Trail, a popular cycling and walking route that runs from Bodmin to Padstow, passes nearby, offering a scenic and traffic-free way to explore the local area.

Just a few miles north lies Padstow, a vibrant town renowned for its food scene, boutique shops, and picturesque harbour. To the south, Wadebridge offers a wide range of schools, supermarkets, and services, making Little Petherick an ideal base for both full-time residents and those seeking a peaceful Cornish escape.

With its tranquil surroundings, proximity to the coast, and easy access to some of Cornwall's most popular destinations, Little Petherick is a hidden gem for those looking to enjoy the best of countryside and coastal living.
