This is an incredibly rare opportunity to purchase a well established detached bungalow with detached garage occupying a large site with paddock to the rear all extending to circa. 0.5 acres. Occupying a prime position with outstanding views over open countryside to the Six Mile Valley at the front and Donegore Hill to the rear this property has already been extended to create a "Granny Annex" making it ideal for those needing a home suitable for multi-generational living. In addition to the ground floor accommodation, the property boasts an open tread staircase to the attic installed over 30 years ago with two further storage rooms and a shower room with W/C.

Outside, the property benefits from dual entrances allowing for an easy drive-in, drive-out experience while the asphalt driveway could accommodate parking for up to six vehicles plus access to the detached garage.

With oil-fired central heating and PVC double glazed windows and external doors, this property, although in need of some updating, is likely to appeal to a wide array of potential purchasers given it's striking location with stunning views and proximity to Dunadry, Parkgate, Templepatrick and Antrim.

Early viewing strongly recommended.
