Changing Lifestyles

Wadebridge offers the perfect blend of convenience, charm, and access to some of Cornwall's most stunning landscapes. Just a short walk away, the town's welcoming, pedestrianised centre is home to a cinema, a variety of national retailers, independent shops, and a vibrant selection of cafés, pubs, and restaurants. For everyday essentials, a Tesco supermarket and a 24-hour M&S Food Hall are conveniently located at the top of West Hill.

Ideally situated for exploring the breathtaking North Cornish countryside, Wadebridge is also the gateway to the picturesque coastal destinations of Rock and Polzeath, both renowned for their beautiful beaches and excellent golf courses.

The town is also intersected by the famous Camel Trail a scenic, traffic-free route that follows the former railway line between Bodmin and Padstow. Popular with walkers and cyclists alike, the trail meanders through wooded valleys and along the banks of the River Camel, offering opportunities to spot local wildlife and enjoy the natural beauty of the area on the way to the coast or inland toward Bodmin Moor.
