Tucked away along a tranquil country lane near the highly sought-after village of Chilsworthy, Honeycroft Farmhouse presents a rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully restored Devon longhouse with an adjoining self-contained annexe.

This impressive and versatile property comprises a 4/5-bedroom farmhouse together with a 1 bedroom single-storey annexe, ideal for generating additional income through holiday letting or providing comfortable accommodation for extended family or dependants.

The main residence exudes traditional character and charm throughout, showcasing original period features such as inglenook fireplaces, window seats, and exposed beams. Set within its own tree-lined grounds and beautifully landscaped gardens, the property enjoys a truly idyllic countryside setting — perfect for those seeking a lifestyle change, with potential for a smallholding or market garden.

The farmhouse has been sympathetically and comprehensively renovated by the current owners, blending modern comforts with timeless appeal. On entering, a welcoming boot room with a utility area and cloakroom leads into a high-quality fitted kitchen complete with a central island and space for informal dining. A formal dining room with an original stone fireplace offers the perfect setting for entertaining, while the spacious living room forms the heart of the home — featuring a wood-burning stove within a striking feature fireplace and opening into an oak-framed extension that enjoys delightful views over the gardens. A further reception room or ground-floor double bedroom completes the main level.

Upstairs, the property offers four generous double bedrooms, including two with en-suite facilities, together with a family bathroom.

The self-contained annexe, formerly used as a successful holiday let, can be configured as either a one or two-bedroom dwelling. It provides a spacious living area, fitted kitchen, and its own enclosed garden with a hot tub (available by separate negotiation), ensuring privacy and comfort for guests or relatives alike.

An extensive range of outbuildings provides ample storage and offers exciting potential for conversion, subject to the necessary planning consents. The property also benefits from an efficient wood-pellet central heating system complemented by solar panels.

In all, Honeycroft Farmhouse represents a wonderful opportunity to acquire a substantial and characterful country residence set in peaceful surroundings — all within just 20 minutes' drive of the North Devon coast.

Location

Honeycroft occupies a superb rural setting only approximately 4 miles from the bustling market town of Holsworthy with its weekly Pannier Market, good range of national and local shops together with a Waitrose supermarket, BP filling station, Marks & Spencers Simply Food and Wild Bean café. There are a whole range of amenities within the town including a heated swimming pool, sports hall, bowling green, cricket club, 18 hole golf course etc. An excellent range of local schooling includes the well known and sought after public school of Shebbear College. Bude on the North Cornish coast is some 9 miles. Okehampton, Dartmoor National Park and the market town of Bideford are some 20 miles distant, whilst Barnstaple, the Regional North Devon Centre is some 30 miles. Launceston, Cornwall's ancient capital, is some 14 miles distant. Holsworthy is in the heart of "Ruby Country", named after the famous local Red Ruby cattle.

Directions

From Holsworthy proceed on the A3072 Bude road and on the edge of Holsworthy, opposite the BP Garage, turn right signed Bradworthy/Chilsworthy. Follow this road for approximately 4 miles, passing through the village of Chilsworthy, after leaving the Village proceed towards the end of this straight section of road and take the right hand turning signposted Honeycroft. Continue for approximately 1 mile whereupon Honeycroft Farmhouse will be found on the left hand side.
