Located in the heart of Bodmin, 2 Railway Terrace is a charming mid-terraced three-bedroom home offering modern comforts, practical living spaces, and excellent access to the town's amenities.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed into a light and open-plan kitchen and living area. The recently modernised kitchen features a four-point gas hob, integral oven, and generous worktop and cupboard space, making it both stylish and functional. Moving through to the living area, an equally sized room provides the perfect setting to relax and unwind in the evenings. Adjacent to this space sits a smaller room, ideal for use as a storage area, hobby room, or a garden room with further potential.

The first floor hosts two well-proportioned bedrooms along with a contemporary family bathroom, complete with WC, basin, bath with overhead shower, and an LED light-up mirror. Modern touches continue throughout this level and the top floor, with LED downlighters and oak-style internal doors adding a sleek finish.

The top floor reveals a loft-converted bedroom filled with natural light courtesy of Velux windows, creating an inviting and versatile additional living space.

Externally, the property benefits from a raised decking area, A small front patio sits before the main entrance, with a pathway leading to the front door. Neighbouring properties retain a right of access over this path. While the property does not include allocated parking, various parking options can be found close by.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this home is ready for its new owner. Early viewing is highly recommended.

Changing Lifestyles

Bodmin is a historic, well-connected Cornish town that offers an ideal blend of natural beauty, community spirit, and modern convenience. Set on the edge of the iconic Bodmin Moor and surrounded by rolling countryside, it's a superb base for anyone wanting both outdoor adventure and easy access to everyday amenities.

Steeped in heritage, the town is home to landmark attractions such as Bodmin Jail, the Bodmin & Wenford Railway, and the magnificent St Petroc's Church. Its lively town centre features a friendly mix of independent shops, cafés, restaurants, and essential services, ensuring everything you need is within easy reach.

Outdoor enthusiasts are well catered for, with the Camel Trail starting in Bodmin and offering miles of scenic cycling and walking routes through woodland, moorland, and riverside landscapes. Nearby Cardinham Woods and the Lanhydrock Estate add even more appeal, providing picturesque trails, National Trust grounds, and family-friendly activities.

Transport links are excellent, with the A30 and A38 offering convenient routes across Cornwall and further afield. Bodmin Parkway railway station provides direct connections to London, Exeter, and Plymouth, making the town ideal for commuters or regular travellers.

Families benefit from a range of well-regarded schools, a modern leisure centre, attractive parks, and a strong community atmosphere supported by local events and facilities.
