THE PROPERTY

Located just off the ever-popular Ormeau Road, 37 Haywood Avenue enjoys a prime position in one of South Belfast's most sought-after residential areas. The Ormeau area is well known for its vibrant atmosphere, excellent local amenities, cafés, shops and parks, along with easy access to Belfast city centre, public transport links, and nearby schools and universities. This makes the area particularly appealing to professionals, couples, and small families alike.

The property itself is an attractive end-terrace home, benefiting from a concrete side and rear yard which offers low-maintenance outdoor space. Internally, the accommodation is well laid out and practical. On the ground floor, there is a bright front reception room, complemented by a separate rear dining room leading through to the kitchen, which is fitted with appliances.

Upstairs, the first floor comprises two well-proportioned bedrooms, a useful storage cupboard, and a bathroom. With its convenient location and functional layout, this home offers comfortable living in a highly desirable area.
