Situated off a private road in a quiet mews of 6 houses that were originally built as a glove factory, this charming home enjoys a wonderfully convenient yet discreet position, offering a rare level walk straight into the heart of the town. Everyday amenities, cafés and shops are all close at hand, while the property itself feels pleasantly sheltered from the bustle. Practicality is well catered for with allocated parking for two vehicles, making day-to-day living effortless.

Before stepping through the threshold of the property, the home features a patio area perfect for your outside table and chairs. Currently working together with the various plants, this is a lovely space to sit and relax. Each home's front patio flows into the communal area where even more flowerbeds create an inviting atmosphere. The property is entered via a welcoming entrance hall, which benefits from a generous built-in cupboard housing the boiler and providing useful storage for coats, shoes and household essentials. From here, the layout flows neatly into the main living accommodation, with the sense of space immediately enhanced by the property's high ceilings and abundance of natural light. A downstairs WC adds further convenience, ideal for guests and busy households alike.

The ground floor is centred around an open-plan living space designed for modern living. The living area sits to the front of the property, where tall ceilings and generous proportions create a bright and airy environment to relax and unwind. To the rear, the kitchen/diner is perfectly positioned for both everyday meals and entertaining, enjoying excellent light and a lovely feeling of openness. A particularly useful feature is the large pantry cleverly incorporated beneath the stairs, maximising storage and keeping the kitchen clutter-free.

Changing Lifestyles

One of the home's most attractive internal features is the elegant curved wall that follows the staircase as it rises to the first floor, adding character and a sense of architectural interest that sets the property apart. Upstairs, both bedrooms are comfortable double rooms, continuing the home's bright and spacious feel and offering flexibility for guests, home working or growing families. The shower room is well-proportioned and thoughtfully arranged, with space to accommodate a washing machine without compromising on comfort or style.

The Stone Barn

A standout feature of this property is the impressive stone barn, which offers a wealth of potential. Currently arranged with a double garage with built in work benches and separate workshop space on the ground floor, it provides excellent storage and practical working areas. Above, a loft room adds further versatility, making this an ideal space for a home office, studio, hobby room, gym, or creative workspace. Subject to the necessary consents, the barn could also lend itself to future conversion or enhancement, offering exciting possibilities for those seeking flexible additional accommodation or workspace alongside the main home.

Overall, this property combines character, practicality and an enviable central-yet-secluded location, with high ceilings and natural light throughout enhancing the sense of space, making it a truly appealing place to call home.
