Offers over £149,950

Just off the ever-popular Ravenhill and Woodstock Roads, this beautifully renovated mid-terrace home offers stylish living in one of East Belfast's most convenient locations.

Recently refurbished, the property has been thoughtfully modernised to provide a fresh, contemporary feel throughout. It has been newly redecorated in a clean, neutral palette and benefits from brand new flooring across both levels, creating a seamless and modern finish. The home has also been fully rewired, giving buyers peace of mind for years to come, alongside a newly installed gas central heating boiler for improved efficiency and comfort. A damp proof course has been carried out as part of the renovation works, ensuring the property is dry, future proofed and ready to move straight into.
