Positioned on a magnificent site on the banks of Belfast Lough in Greenisland. This attractive double fronted detached family home extends to circa 3000 sq ft. Externally the property enjoys a hard landscaped courtyard styled garden plus an extensive first floor vernanda boasting panoramic views over the sea towards Belfast and the County Down coastline. For the purchaser interested in sailing the property further benefits from a private slip-waydown providing access to the beach. The property was built in the 1980's and was architecturally designed to maximise the stunning shore front location. The accommodation briefly comprises 5 bedrooms, first floor lounge & kitchen, superb open plan reception style hall living / entertaining space (28.6' x 22.8) family bathroom and ensuite. Perfectly situated with direct frontage onto the shore road in Greenisland Belfast city centre is within a 10 minute commute. Homes in this setting seldom come to the market and whilst the property does require updating we believe it will interest the purchaser searching for a site for their forever home.
