

99 Cliftonville Road, Belfast, BT14 6JQ

PRICE Offers Around £249,950

99 Cliftonville Road is a striking detached residence that masterfully combines Victorian architectural grandeur with the expansive proportions required for modern luxury living. This double-fronted home commands immediate attention, offering a rare blend of period character and versatile space. From the symmetrical façade to the high ceilings and ornate cornicing within, the property serves as a sophisticated sanctuary for those who appreciate historical "gravitas" alongside contemporary functionality.

The ground floor is defined by three generous reception rooms plus a study, providing a fluid layout perfect for both formal entertaining and relaxed family life. Whether configured as a grand drawing room, a private library, or a contemporary media suite, these light-filled spaces adapt effortlessly to your lifestyle. Upstairs, there are 3 bright spacious bedrooms, all with ensuite shower rooms.

Uniquely for a period property, the home features four full bathrooms, ensuring ultimate privacy and convenience for every resident. Its detached status provides a sense of seclusion and wraparound access, all while situated in a premier location within close proximity to schools and local amenities. With a high level of interest anticipated, an early viewing is highly recommended.
