Tucked away in the heart of the Devon village of Beaford, this beautifully presented Grade II listed period cottage offers a rare blend of timeless character and thoughtful modern living. Having been lovingly improved during the current vendors' ownership, the home now provides a warm and inviting lifestyle while retaining all the charm you would expect from a property of its heritage—most notably enhanced by a newly installed thatched roof in October 2025, ensuring both aesthetic appeal and peace of mind.

Approaching the property, you are immediately struck by its quintessential cottage appeal. A welcoming external porch, also newly thatched, sets the tone before you even step inside. The front door opens into a home that feels light and contemporary, yet still rich in character and atmosphere.

The living room is a particularly impressive space, flooded with natural light from three windows that create a bright and airy environment throughout the day. Generous in size, it offers excellent versatility—comfortably accommodating both relaxing seating and a dining area if desired. At its heart sits a multi-fuel log burner, providing a cosy focal point perfect for cooler evenings and adding to the cottage's undeniable sense of warmth and homeliness.

The kitchen continues the theme of practicality and charm, offering ample space for everyday living. Well-proportioned, it includes room for appliances such as a washing machine and features a traditional Rayburn, complemented by a Kenwood integrated oven, hob and dishwasher for modern convenience. A cleverly designed understairs cupboard has been utilised as a pantry, maximising storage while maintaining a clean and functional layout. To the rear, an additional porch provides a useful transition space before stepping out into the garden.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with three well-sized double bedrooms, each offering comfortable accommodation and flexibility for family living, guests, or even a home office. The bathroom is conveniently positioned to serve all rooms, completing the first-floor layout.

Externally, the cottage enjoys a delightful garden that enhances its lifestyle appeal. A stone chippings pathway leads you through to a lawned garden, providing a wonderful outdoor space for relaxation, entertaining, or simply enjoying the peaceful surroundings. A charming newly installed summer house adds further versatility—ideal as a retreat, hobby space, or garden office. To the rear, the property also benefits from off-road parking for multiple vehicles, a valuable feature for a home of this nature.
