As you pull onto the generous driveway, the detached bungalow sits comfortably within its plot, with ample off-road parking and a detached garage to one side. The gardens immediately set the tone. Expansive lawns, pockets of shrubs, and open aspects in every direction, all enjoying the surrounding rural landscape.

Stepping through the UPVC double glazed front door, you enter into a bright front porch, currently utilised as a second reception space. With windows framing the countryside beyond, it's a calm and welcoming introduction to the home. Ideal as a reading area, snug, or simply a place to pause and take in the views.

From here, the entrance hall provides access to the main accommodation, complete with two useful storage cupboards that hint at the practicality found throughout the property. Moving through, the home opens into a generous open-plan living and dining room. This is the heart of Trevallen. A light-filled space with multiple windows drawing in natural light and showcasing the remarkable countryside views. A traditional Calor gas fireplace creates a focal point, giving the room a cosy yet spacious feel, equally suited to quiet evenings or entertaining guests.

The kitchen sits to the rear and offers a well-equipped, functional layout. With ample storage, integrated appliances including a Diplomat oven and grill with gas hob, dishwasher, and fridge, as well as a breakfast bar, it's a space designed for both everyday living and convenience. A window overlooks the rear garden, maintaining that connection to the outdoors.

Adjoining the kitchen, the utility room provides further practicality, with space and plumbing for appliances, housing the regularly serviced Worcester boiler, and offering direct access out to the garden. A separate W.C. is located just off this space, adding further convenience.

The sleeping accommodation is thoughtfully arranged. Bedroom three, a generous single, sits to the front and benefits from the same lovely countryside outlook. The principal bedroom is a spacious double room, complete with built-in storage and wide-reaching rural views, creating a peaceful retreat. Bedroom two is another well-proportioned double, offering flexibility for family, guests, or home working.

The family bathroom is well presented and fitted with a full suite, including bath, wash hand basin, low flush W.C., also a separate corner shower cubicle.

Outside, the property continues to impress. The detached garage offers both power and additional storage space to the rear, while the surrounding gardens wrap around the home, providing a variety of lawned areas and planting spaces. Each aspect of the plot enjoys open countryside views, reinforcing the sense of space and tranquillity. Oil fired central heating, mains water, electricity, private drainage, Calor gas connected for hob and fireplace.

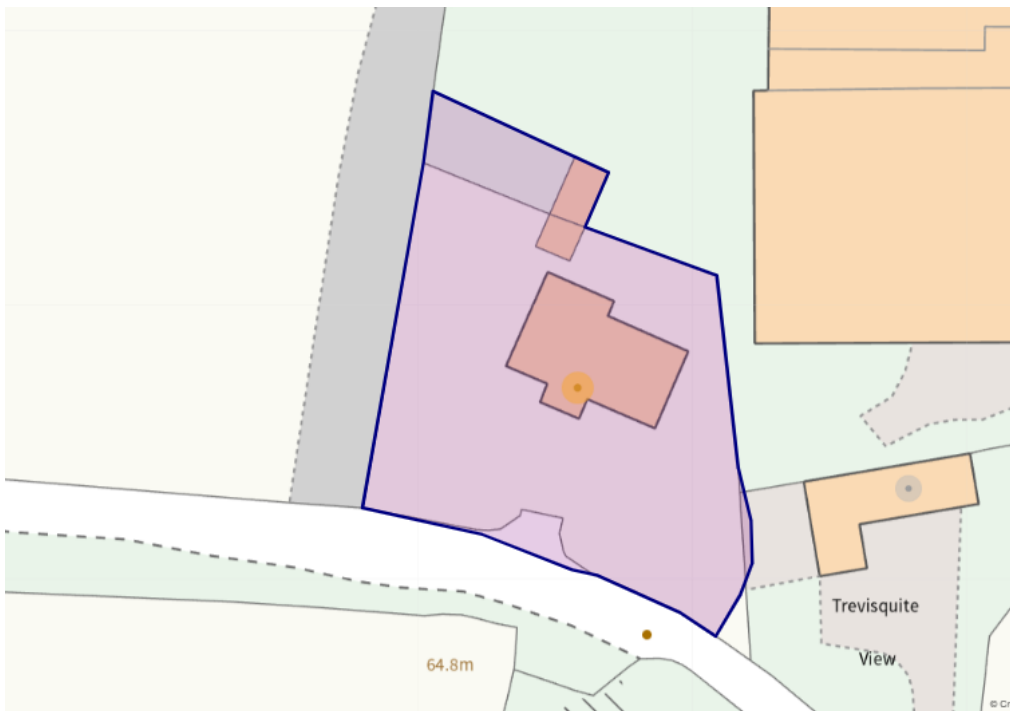

Trevallen offers an excellent opportunity to acquire a well-presented, spacious three-bedroom detached bungalow in a highly desirable rural setting. With Freehold tenure, Council Tax Band D, and an EPC rating of D, it combines comfort, practicality, and location. Ideal for those seeking countryside living with room to breathe.
