Tallentire House 102 WILLIAM STREET
Lurgan BT66 6JB

Offers over
£299,950

Description:

This truly impressive period property, having a striking bay window elevation, retains many of its character features and architectural mouldings, complimenting a very deceptive interior floor plan, which has been wonderfully designed over three floors.

The property has the benefit of commercial planning, skilfully allowing an opportunity to utilise the generous accommodation for alternative configurations of room lets for small businesses, with a residential 2 bed apartment on the second floor.

Originally this property was a very fine period residence, located on the prime and bustling William Street with its array of shops and businesses including The Ashburn Hotel and the Court House Bar. Right across the road is Lurgan train station providing access to Portadown, Newry and the south as well as Moira, Lisburn and Belfast Grand Central. The Lough Road will lead to the M1 interchange for Belfast and the west, whilst local attractions including Lurgan Golf Club, Oxford Island and Kinnego Marina as well as Northern Ireland largest and most beautiful urban Park.

The sale of this truly unique property will allow many opportunities for a wide spectrum of potential investors seeking a large property in a prime location.

Viewing a must!
