Located just five minutes by car outside Carryduff, this attractive and recently upgraded detached residence was built approximately mid 90s, yet offers the appearance and character of a period home.

The plot extends to approx 1 acre and is entered via a private gated driveway. This leads you to the main property, which sits to the left. To the right you will see a detached annex which my clients utilise for when they have friends and family visiting, this has its own bedroom area, kitchen, living room and shower. For those with equestrian interests, there is an equestrian arena, stables and a superb 90ft barn with light and power.

The gorgeous countryside views around the property are uninterrupted and within the grounds, you have the most striking selection of mature shrubs and plants, chosen specifically to continually change with the seasons.
