Occupying a central position within the highly regarded village of Buckland Brewer, this substantial detached farmhouse dates back to the 18th Century and offers over 3,300 square feet of versatile accommodation. Combining the character and charm expected from a home of its era with practical modern comforts, the property presents a rare opportunity to acquire a residence capable of accommodating large families, multiple generations or those seeking a home with additional lifestyle and income opportunities.

A welcoming Entrance Hall sets the tone for the accommodation beyond. Character features including exposed beams, deep window reveals and an impressive inglenook fireplace with a wood burning stove create an immediate sense of warmth and history, whilst the generous room proportions provide the space required for contemporary living.

At the heart of the home is a beautifully appointed Kitchen and adjoining Dining Room, creating a natural gathering place for everyday family life and larger social occasions alike. French doors open onto the courtyard, providing an ideal setting for summer entertaining and al fresco dining. A second Reception Room and second Kitchen further enhance the flexibility of the accommodation, offering excellent potential for independent living arrangements, guest accommodation or extended family occupation.

The layout has been thoughtfully arranged to provide exceptional versatility. Four Bedrooms are located on the ground floor together with bath and shower room facilities, making the property particularly attractive for multi-generational living. A further 4 Bedrooms occupy the first floor, including a spacious principal suite with en-suite facilities and its own staircase. Several bedrooms benefit from en-suite shower rooms, providing comfort and privacy for family members and visiting guests.

Outside, attractive lawned gardens create a wonderful first impression and provide ample space for children to play, family gatherings and outdoor relaxation. A sheltered courtyard offers a more intimate entertaining space, whilst the property also benefits from the convenience of private driveway parking to the side of the house, leading to an impressive and extensive garage that provides excellent storage, workshop potential or secure parking for multiple vehicles. Together, these features offer a rare combination of practicality and flexibility to complement the generous accommodation within.

Buckland Brewer remains one of North Devon's most desirable villages, offering a strong sense of community together with a popular village pub, primary school, church and village hall. The market towns of Bideford and Great Torrington are within easy reach, whilst the dramatic North Devon coastline, sandy beaches and South West Coast Path are all readily accessible.

Whether seeking a substantial family home, accommodation for multiple generations under one roof or a property with the flexibility to adapt as life changes, this impressive farmhouse offers a rare combination of character, space and versatility in an enviable village setting.

Area Information

Famous for being the hometown of Edward Capern, the poet postman, Buckland Brewer is one of North Devon's most beautiful villages. The village is surrounded by a diverse landscape of meadows, woodlands, moors and forestry plantations. The impressive tower of the Church of St. Mary (St. Benedict) is 75 ft. high and can be seen for miles around. It has a pub and village hall and it shares schools with Great Torrington and Bideford.

Close by, Great Torrington has RHS Rosemoor, Dartington Crystal and the brilliant Plough Arts Centre with its diverse programme of movies, craft classes, live bands and stand-up comedy.

Reasonable driving from the Atlantic Highway (A39), Buckland Brewer is well-served by the main feeder route across the region leading to Wadebridge in Cornwall to the south-west and to the M5 by Tiverton in the east. A bus service provides access to North Devon's 'capital', Barnstaple. Bus users can also reach Westward Ho!, Bideford, Braunton, Appledore, Croyde, Okehampton, Holsworthy, Great Torrington, Hartland and Ilfracombe.

Directions

From Bideford, take the A386 towards Torrington. On reaching Landcross, take the right hand turning signed Buckland Brewer / Parkham. Follow this road until reaching a sharp left hand bend where shortly after is the turning left to Buckland Brewer. Keep on this road until you approach the village from the North. Head straight down the hill past both the church and chapel and take the turning on your right onto Gorwood Road to with the entrance to the property will be located on your right hand side.
