Introduction

Drum Meadow is an exclusive private development located on Long Lane, Portadown. Just off the popular Gilford Road. Nestled in the heart of the countryside this latest development by Sheriff Homes enjoys views and access to its idyllic rural surroundings yet offers convenient access to Portadown's bustling town centre.

Portadown has a broad range of amenities including town centre with independent shops, high street retailers, trendy restaurants and coffee shops as well as nearby supermarkets and the ever popular Rushmere Shopping Centre. Further eateries are close by within the Omniplex Cinema complex.

For growing families Portadown presents a choice of high achieving primary and secondary schools. The town is also home to a Southern Regional College campus offering a wide range of further education courses and evening classes.

Homes on offer at Drum Meadow present the latest in modern living perfectly blended with Georgian style red brick exterior facades. This range of detached and semi-detached homes offer spacious accommodation throughout along with generous outdoor plots and private driveways. Each property will be finished to the same exacting standards and ensure a stylish and comfortable home for years to come. This exclusive development presents an opportunity to avail of a beautiful family home in the perfect location.
