

Application for Tenancy

This form must be completed and signed before any application for tenancy can be formally considered.

Proof of ID will be required, Passport/Driving Licence etc. We also require two references via email. One reference must be from your previous landlord* and one an employer's reference or character reference. *If a landlords reference is not available because you were not previously in rented accommodation, please provide a second character reference and 3 months recent bank statements.

If your application is successful, you are due to pay the first months' rent in advance before the commencement of your tenancy. We then take your property off the market however if you fail to move into the property, the first months' rent is non-refundable,

A security deposit of £500 is also required and will be held in our client account, the deposit will not be returned until your tenancy has ended, and only then, if the obligations of your tenancy have been met in full, the final household bills are paid (we may require proof) and the property is returned in a satisfactory condition.
