Woolfardisworthy is known as the village with two names and lies inland approximately 600 feet above sea level. The country lanes are narrow and wind upwards and onwards through steep banked hedgerows. As you come down into Woolfardisworthy you can see the medieval tower of All Hallows Church on the skyline. Famous for its annual fair it's a really nice community that's earned its nickname as 'the friendly village' effortlessly. The village has an excellent school, shop, community hall and rebuilt pub. It's also close to the South West Coast Path for endlessly beautiful walks.

With short distance of the Atlantic Highway (A39), Woolfardisworthy is well served by the main feeder route across the region leading to Wadebridge in Cornwall to the south-west and to the M5 by Tiverton in the east. A very good regular bus service provides access to North Devon's 'capital', Barnstaple. Bus users can also reach Westward Ho!, Bideford, Braunton, Appledore, Croyde, Okehampton, Holsworthy, Great Torrington, Hartland and Ilfracombe with ease.

Outside

Ford Mill Farm sits within approximately 8.75 acres of largely level grounds that are kept to a very high standard. The grounds are all conveniently situated within the boundary of the property and there is a high degree of privacy to be enjoyed.

Opposite the house is a block of 3 stables which measure 14' x 12', 13'4 x 11'5 and 13'8 x 12'3 - 1 of which has been turned into a training room. Attached to this is an old stone Barn which measures 60' x 17'.

There is plentiful parking to suit the largest of families as well as guests for the holiday lets. In addition to the Outbuildings is a Double Garage with a Store and a 40' x 40' partially constructed Barn.

The sweeping lawns provide an exceptional space to be enjoyed and there is a lake for fishing enthusiasts which is registered with certification in place. The River Torridge forms the southern border. There are a variety of areas to be enjoyed with much of the ground being bordered by a gentle river.

There is so much scope to these grounds that they really need to be explored to be fully appreciated but our aerial photos and videos will give a good indication.

Useful Information

This property has owned solar panels installed that greatly contribute to the cost of the bills for the main house and the holiday lets. An income of approximately £400 a year is also generated from them.

We have taken some photos of the commercial listings of these holiday properties and have added them to our current listing.

It should be noted that the Kitchen worktop surfaces have been upgraded since the photos were taken. Both of the holiday properties have outside spaces of their own.

Due to Ford Mill Dairy and Ford Mill Shippen being holiday let, we do not have any current photos to display. If you are interested to see some pre-existing photos then please contact the office.
