SUMMARY

Location

The property is situated with Bangor Town centre approximately 13 miles southeast of Belfast. The property is located on the eastern side of Gray's Hill close to its junction with the Queen's Parade and is within 5 minutes walking distance of the prime retail area at Main Street as well as Bangor Marina, Seafront and Pickie Fun Park.

Description

The property comprises an attractive large period property with the accommodation arranged over ground floor and 3 further floors accessing the two bedroom apartment above, all benefitting from excellent natural light and good floor to ceiling heights with making for attractive .

The building is of masonry construction, incorporating aluminium front window at ground floor shop front level, with uPVC double glazing to all remaining windows on the upper levels. The ground and first floors are each arranged as split levels with access front both shop and apartment to the rear courtyard garden. Internally the property is finished to include many original period finishes including roof beams and high ceilings with cornice.

Accommodation

No. 28 comprises two open shops spaces with kitchenette and large store/kitchen area with range of fitted units, separate WC and access to enclosed rear yard.

No. 28a is accessed via the shared entrance hallway leading to its own private hallway. The internal accommodation is over the first and second floor including kitchen, with range of fitted units and appliances and access to enclosed rear yard, shower room, spacious living room with open fire and bedroom two. On the second floor is the main bedroom and shower room with range of fitted robes.

Overall, this is a superb opportunity in a well established area which is about to see significant investment in the coming months with the redevelopment of Bangor's of Queens Parade and we would highly recommend an inspection to appreciate this investment opportunity.
