Armstrong Gordon are delighted to offer for sale this extensive area of land and buildings encompassing a 4 bed house and large integral retail premises, with courtyard and well to rear, and garden extending down to Articlave river. This house was a B & B at one time, and because of its large rooms, views and North Coast location, this offers yet another possible business opportunity for this versatile property. Also includes a spacious barn with former planning permission for a dwelling with views of the sea. In front of the barn is a large enclosed yard offering generous off-street parking with direct access to the main Castlerock road leading to Coleraine and Magilligan. The disused barn would also be suitable for possible leisure activities, storage facilities, stables, garages, workshop, etc.

Leaving Coleraine on the Castlerock Road, proceed onto the A2 Quilly Road which will lead you directly into the village of Articlave. Number 33 and 35 will be located just on your left hand side after the orange hall.
