The Property

Ideally located on a quiet lane and approached by a sweeping driveway through mature secluded gardens, this superb detached family home has been sympathetically refurbished and restored by the current owners whilst still retaining much character and charm. Built in 1860 this unique property sits on an elevated site with stunning views over the surrounding countryside and the Mourne.

Set over three floors the accommodation, in brief, comprises of a spacious reception hall, drawing room, with feature fireplace, overlooking the gardens, and Shaker style kitchen with ample space for dining and living. The casual living area benefits from a wood burning stove and French doors to patio and garden. A further reception room, large utility room and WC add to the list of key features to the ground floor.

On the first floor there are three well appointed double bedrooms, master, with en suite, and family bathroom with a further two spacious bedrooms to the second floor. Outside does not disappoint either. The front and large side garden is laid in lawns with mature plants, shrubs and trees as well as driveway providing generous parking. To the rear there is a large detached garage with additional parking for several cars, boats, caravans.

39 Cloughey Road is only a short drive to the harbour town of Portaferry with a variety of local amenities, the Marina and the stunning beaches of Cloughey and Quintin Bay all providing a huge range of activities from sailing on the Strangford Lough to cycling, walking and fishing. Not surprising Portaferry was voted in the top three places to live in Northern Ireland with unbeatable scenery on your doorstep.
