INTRODUCTION

The sale of this prime waterfront site represents one of the few remaining opportunities to acquire an undeveloped site in the heart of Craigavad, on the North Down coastline between Cultra and Helen's Bay.

This superb site offers extensive frontage with direct access to the coastal path and commands uninterrupted views across Belfast Lough stretching from Belfast, along the County Antrim shoreline, to Scotland.

In recent years, some of the finest contemporary and traditionally designed new homes in Northern Ireland have been built in the North Down area which would be at the pinnacle of the Northern Ireland housing market. The continued confidence in this most exclusive residential area has also underpinned house values.

Whilst the tree lined Station Road provides a most attractive approach to this coastal site, the location could not be more convenient with coastal walks literally on your door step extending to Holywood, Helen's Bay and Bangor. Royal North of Ireland Yacht Club is within walking distance and the site runs parallel to the 8th hole on the Royal Belfast Golf Course.

For the commuter, Holywood is only five minutes away, Bangor 10 minutes, and Belfast approximately 15 minutes.

The nearby railway halt also provides a regular service to Belfast and Bangor, and Belfast City Airport is within 10 minutes' drive.

All in all, a unique opportunity to acquire an exceptional waterfront building site in the highly sought after North Down area.
