Hot to Trot!

Front Road is a stunning detached bungalow that offers spacious and versatile accommodation that is perfect for an established family seeking a home with a peaceful yet convenient rural setting. The property sits proudly on a site of approximately 2 acres, has beautiful surrounding gardens and stunning views as far as the eye can see. Both Belfast and Lisburn are within a short drive ensuring a great range of amenities are easily accessible. The property may be of particular interest to anyone with equestrian interests due to the property offering a number of stables, ménage and paddocks.

The property comprises a welcoming entrance hall that leads to a formal dining hall, a fabulous lounge with a large bay window, a feature stone fireplace and superb views over the countryside, a large family room with recessed lighting, a spacious country style kitchen with a separate dining area that opens into a utility room, four double bedrooms, master with a superb range of built in furniture, an en-suite shower room and a large family bathroom with a corner Jacuzzi style bath and a separate shower cubicle.

There is ample parking available on the driveway to the front and to the side of the property. Landscaped gardens are laid in mature trees and shrubs with two adjacent paddocks, a ménage, a double garage with adjoining open garage and stable block to include tack room and four loose boxes and a large yard with additional parking.

The Front Road is a very convenient place to live with a great range of amenities only a short drive away in both Belfast and Lisburn. There are dedicated school buses to and from some of the areas leading schools.
