Would you benefit from accommodation spread over just one level, with benefits including versatile accommodation and pleasant gardens, whilst being positioned within an active village community?

Number 9 is a well-presented detached bungalow situated within the sought-after village location of Northlew, surrounded by unspoilt countryside, with the opportunity for Dartmoor adventures or coastal pursuits at your convenience...

Upon approach, you will be initially drawn to the attractive stonework frontage, meticulous front garden and adjacent driveway offerings. As you enter the property, the welcoming entrance hall embraces a wealth of natural light and an overall neutral décor theme.

Bedrooms one and two are both located to the front of the bungalow, both ample double bedrooms with the master benefiting from an en-suite shower room. Centrally located, we will find the updated walk-in shower room, practically designed, incorporating a majority tiled design. Plentiful storage options are available, from the large airing cupboard opposite, to the ample loft space above.

Continuing to the rear of the home, we have further offerings bedroom three, currently occupied as a double bedroom, with the potential to be a comfortable home office or designated dining room. The kitchen has been updated over the years to accommodate a selection of integrated appliances, plentiful worktop space and an overall modern theme.

The living room is a particularly desirable feature, with generous floorspace for a selection of furnishings and patio doors leading out to the enclosed rear garden. The gardens have been well-maintained, promoting an easterly orientation, storage provisions and a summerhouse for an external retreat.

Alongside the driveway which can accommodate multiple vehicles, the recessed garage can offer further vehicle storage or additional storage, housing the oil-fired boiler plus power and lighting.
