We are delighted to offer for sale this stunning detached bungalow set on a corner site within this ever popular development on the edge of Saintfield village. This family home has been completely refurbished in recent years with a high specification of finish used throughout. This property really needs to be viewed to fully appreciate both the size, standard of finish and the overall site.

Internally the property comprises spacious entrance hall with cloaks, a generous living room with a feature fireplace, a stunning recently fitted kitchen with a range of integrated appliances and a useful breakfast bar that flows into a casual dining area. Other features of this fine home include a utility room/ guest wc, four spacious bedrooms and a modern shower room.

Outside the property further benefits from a large integrated garage with a roller door that is approached by a large large tarmac driveway with parking for numerous cars/ a boat or even a caravan. Surrounded by landscaped gardens that include a feature composite raised decked area perfect for morning coffee or BBQ's, two paved patio areas, well tended lawns and mature trees offer a private setting - this site really is special.

Saintfield is a popular commuter village situated approximately 11 miles south of Belfast and in close proximity to Carryduff, Ballygowan, Ballynahinch and Crossgar. The bustling village itself, boasts an array of amenities including local boutiques, coffee shops, pubs and restaurants not forgetting the renowned primary and secondary schools. Linden Close is a much sought after area of Saintfield and with high demand for bungalows in the area, this is an opportunity not to be missed.
